RESPONSE OF ELIZABETH CHRISTINE GRAYBILL AND MARY GRAYBILL-REES TO SOAH ORDER NO. 4 PROPOSING TO REMOVE INACTIVE PARTIES FROM THIS DOCKET AND APPROVING SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE

COME NOW, ELIZABETH CHRISTINE GRAYBILL and MARY GRAYBILL-REES, and file this their Response to Soah Order Proposing to Remove Inactive Parties from This Docket and Approving Supplemental Notice and Imposing Sanctions, would show the following:

While we did not file a statement of position by the deadline imposed, we ask that the Administrative Law Judges not impose sanctions on Elizabeth Christine Graybill or Mary Graybill-Rees for not timely filing their statement of position. First, these two parties reside in Cameron County, Texas, hundreds of miles from Austin, Travis County, where all proceedings and hearings are taking place. Traveling to and from Cameron County to Travis County to attend these proceedings and hearings is an undue burden on us and is costly. Second, Elizabeth Christine Graybill has a full-time job which does not allow her to attend any of these proceedings or hearings. Finally, we cannot afford to hire an attorney to attend all these proceedings on our behalf.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Elizabeth Christine Graybill and Mary Graybill-Rees respectfully request that sanctions not be imposed on them and request such and further relief to which they may be justly entitled to receive.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Elizabeth Christine Graybill
